NEW YORK CITY GAY MEN'S CHORUS ANNOUNCES THEIR 2017/18 SEASON OF PERFORMANCES AND FUNDRAISERS

NEW YORK, October 2017 – New York City Gay Men's Chorus (NYCGMC) today announced their 2017/18 season of concerts featuring special guest stars, a ten-year anniversary celebration of the beloved sing-along sensation, BIG GAY SING X, and important fundraising events.

"After a year of rallies and marches, NYCGMC and YPC are bringing you a collection of concerts that address the wrongs of the world with music that celebrates what's right in all of us," said Charlie Beale, Artistic Director for NYCGMC. "Our aim is to ease your mind, get you to your feet, get you dancing in the aisles and back out to the streets with a newfound energy to support equality and human rights," Charlie added.

"Once again BAPA invites important special guests to share the stage throughout the year with The Bang Group this holiday season and the Angel City Chorale from Los Angeles this May," said Lisa Reilly, Executive Director of Big Apple Performing Arts.

Season subscriptions can be purchased here: <http://www.nycgmc.org/season-subscriptions>
